FRIDAY OCTOBER 6.

Have you paid your income tax?
 Ain't shoes high this fall? But still they like about three inches of being as high as skirts.

Three women recently died in chairs out West. A busy world this is when people have got time to lay down and die.

The ladies should make a special study of "First Aid to the Injured" this month. You'll need it when the "old man" gets that bill for hats, etc.

Editor Ellison, of the Lancaster News, is printing page after page of "Trade at Home Dope," in fact, judging from his advertisement, he seems to be more interested in trading at home than the Lancaster merchants. Why should he worry?

There's at least one good thing about the high cost of paper. We note the shoe manufacturers are now forced to use leather instead of paper in the manufacture of shoes. You can no longer pull off the heel of your shoe and read the Pennsylvania Grit.

Greenville has pulled off a knowing stunt. They wanted to know how many people would pass a certain corner the other day so they got one of these "click" watches to keep count. Of course, Greenville people wanted to make a big showing and the folks almost walked themselves to death passing corners.

The Lancaster Citizen states that Lancaster has been paying the highest price for cotton of any market in the state for the several days, 16 1/2-cents being the top of the local market. Chester on Wednesday was paying 16.80. Will some bright school boy or girl kindly tell us which is the most—16.50 or 16.80.

A great many farmers are in the habit of selling cotton and instead of depositing the money in the local banks they carry it around in their pockets. Last fall there were several hundred dollars lost in this manner in Chester county. If people would deposit their money in the banks and pay it out by checks there would be no possible way in which they might lose it.

Someone has said that if a woman were to associate with men all the time she would soon stop gossiping and make as good a gossiping manager as the sterner sex. Wonder if a man were to associate with women all the time if he would cut out business and stop gossiping? —Greenville Piedmont.

DON'T DO AS I DO, BUT DO AS I SAY.

We believe in buying from the home merchants, and we have from time to time endeavored to show our readers the advantages to be derived from keeping money in the home county.

A merchant should be the biggest "Trade at Home" booster in a town and in order for his boosting to be effective he certainly must practice the buy at home movement. We had twelve accounts presented to us as the first of this month by Chester merchants and four of these accounts were on statements printed in distant cities—not because the out-of-town prices was cheaper for the home printers did not even get an opportunity to bid on these jobs.

Moral: You cannot make the people do something you, will not do yourself.

NEGROES PROTEST AGAINST BLEASIE'S MAKING A SPEECH

Columbia, Oct. 3.—A number of prominent negroes exploded a sensation in the city today by circulating a petition to the faculty of Allen University, a negro institution managed by southern white people, protesting against the appearance of ex-Governor Oola L. Bleasie at the opening exercises of the university tomorrow.

The petition asked that Mr. Bleasie be not allowed to speak, saying that "It will greatly embarrass our wives and daughters to have ex-Governor Bleasie speak to them, since he has spoken so harshly in the courts and on the stump against the virtue of negro women and the respect and decency of the negro race in general, and on every occasion has from time to time spoken against negro education and negro schools."

ALL ARRANGEMENTS FOR BIG FAIR COMPLETE

An Outline of the Shows, etc.—Prominent Speakers to be Present—Two Bands Will Furnish Music.

Unless all signs fail the Chester County Fair October 17, 18, 19, and 20 will be the best and biggest Fair ever held in Chester or any of the surrounding counties. Preparations have been made for the largest crowds that ever attended a fair in this city and from all reports received by Secretary Lloyd the crowds will be large every day especially the first two days, Tuesday, which is Educational Day and Wednesday, when the Farmers' Congress will be held. The fair has been well advertised all over this and the adjoining counties and additional advertising is to be done next week.

With a reduction in price of admission this year the first attendance has been increased. They include two of the best attractions that could be booked and both have been most highly recommended by Fair Secretaries in other cities where they have been engaged.

For those who like real thrills Sensational Smithson in his death defying twirl of terror "Cycling the Cosmos" will produce an exhibition that will not only satisfy their demand for thrills but make everybody ask "how does he do it." Sensational Smithson is the daredevil and original "Sensational" who has mystified millions of people at state fairs and large exhibitions since he originated this hair raising act. Starting at the top of an incline fifty feet from the ground and riding ninety feet along this incline which it but two feet wide he jumps a gap of thirty-four feet and finishes his ride on the second platform. While this performance is as spectacular in day light he has an added thriller for night which he uses a fire display which makes the ride more hazardous for the rider but very beautiful for the spectators.

Another fine attraction secured for the fair is the famous "Felix" Family, five of the best acrobats appearing before American audiences today. A large stage twenty by thirty five feet will be erected opposite the grandstand for this exhibition which last twenty minutes and consists of gymnastic and acrobatic performance concluding with a spectacular revolving gymnastic performance by the children of the troupe "Curly Head" and "Felix" are the clowns of the troupe and are genuine laugh producers. This act is especially interesting to ladies and children and will be given twice each day of the fair as will Sensational Smithson's twirl of terror.

Another big attraction which has been booked is the fireworks display for Thursday night and which included the "Battle of the Darks" the best and most spectacular fireworks exhibition being presented this year. There will be no extra admission for this added attraction.

The Exhibits.

A number of new exhibits have been arranged for this fair including the United States Health Exhibit, exhibits of the Merchants and Manufacturers of the county; exhibits of the Home Demonstration Clubs of the county arranged in booths and the usual exhibits of Livestock, Poultry, Canning Club, Household Fabrics, Pantry and Dairy supplies, etc.

Over thirty of the merchants and manufacturers of the county have already engaged spaces for their exhibits and this exhibit will be some three altogether new for the County Fair as will the Health Exhibit and the Laurel Post Exhibit.

Arrangements have been completed for lighting the grounds at night so that the same display may be seen every night as in the day. Time All the exhibits will be kept open till 9:30 p. m. each night to give those who cannot attend during the day an opportunity of seeing the exhibits at night. All the exhibits will be housed in one big tent which covers 10,000 square feet of floor-space, except the livestock and poultry which will occupy another large tent. At night plenty of light will be furnished in this exhibition tents and along the midway.

The Midway

The midway this year will be furnished by the Big Four Amusement Company and will consist of good clean shows, a merry-go-round, ferris wheel and other attractions. There will be no immoral shows and gambling will not be permitted. Secretary Lloyd was notified a few days ago that this company was endeavoring to secure several additional shows including a wild west show and a dog and pony show as well as the stunts and the Midway will be open at 10 a. m. each day closing at 6 p. m. and reopening again at 7 p. m.

Music For the Fair.

There will be two bands this year. One of them, the Hickory Grove Band, will furnish the concert music for the stunts and the Fair Grounds while the other band will furnish along the midway both day and night.

A different program has been outlined for each of the four days. The opening day has been designated as Educational Day, and the feature of the day will be the school parade in the morning which will form on Main street (in front of the Court House) at 9:45 and move to the Fair.

TANLACHAS BEEN WORTH $500 TO HIM, HE SAYS

Richardson, Dallas, Two Years Have Passed Since Tanlach Restored My Health.

ONCE LIVED ON MILK.

Removed by Tanlach, he says, "I have had no return of any of my old troubles."

A few days ago, Frank Richardson, a well known employee of the Lyr. Printing Company, residing at 205 E. Second St., Atlanta, came into Jacob's Pharmacy and told him his experience with Tanlach said: "About eighteen months ago, while I lived in Knoxville, Tenn., I made the statement that I wouldn't take $500 for the good. Tanlach did me. Well, I just want to tell you I still feel the same way about it. I suffered with the most terrible case of stomach trouble, which had followed me for seven long years, and pulled me down almost to the point of despair. Tanlach gave me relief when everything else had failed and I can never forget it."

"My diet was restricted to milk and occasionally a soft boiled egg, and I wouldn't touch meats of any kind. I was habitually constipated and extremely nervous. No matter what I would eat, I would always have an awful pain in my stomach and this, with my stomach, kept me awake for hours every night. My condition alarmed my wife and I was almost at the turn of the road when I wasn't strong to follow my vocation."

"I read about Tanlach helping so many people who were afflicted as I was, and I determined to try it. I started to the drug store one evening for my first bottle, and I was so weak from loss of strength and energy that I fainted. I managed to get back home after so long, and started on my Tanlach, and the few doses made me feel better. I continued improving, and after taking the fourth bottle, there was a most wonderful change in my condition. I found that I could eat just anything I wanted, and for the first time in years, I could eat boiled ham and potatoes and felt no ill after-effects. The pains all left my stomach; my nervousness disappeared and I could sleep like a child. My troubles all went away with those few bottles of Tanlach and I feel stronger and more energetic than I had been in years. Yes, six, eighteen months have passed since Tanlach so wonderfully restored my health, and it gives me pleasure to tell you that I have no return of my old troubles to this day, and I have kept my average weight all along. Tanlach made life a real pleasure to me, and I go about my work with a feeling that reminds me of the days of my young manhood."

Tanlach, the master medicine is sold exclusively by the Big Four Drug Store, Chester; Lockhart Mills store, Blackstock; D. Ferguson, Fort Lawn; Lockhart; Kennedy Mercantile Co., Price $1. per bottle straight.

MOTHER'S LOVE AIDS SON IN TRENCHES

It Brings Relief To Boy Standing His Watch Deep In Mud.

Once upon a time, only a few months after this terrible world war had begun, Private Bailey, a soldier in the ranks had stood for days in the trenches "somewhere in France." The cold rains soaked him to the skin; the mud was deep. He had had no rest. Weary and aching with rheumatic pains, he recalled the faith his mother had in Sloan's Liniment. He asked for it in his next letter home. A large bottle was immediately sent him and a few applications killed the pain, once more he was able to stand the severe exposure. He shared this wonderful muscle-soother with his comrades, and they all agreed it was the greatest "reinforcement" that had ever come to their rescue. At your druggist, 25c, 50c, and $1.00 a bottle.

CHESTER COTTON MARKET BEST IN THE SOUTH.

It may be of interest to Chester county people to know that the local cotton market Wednesday, at this place, was according to quotations in newspapers, the best in the entire South, that is, North of Atlanta, Ga. We give the figures below:

Chastity	16.85
Atlanta	16.75
Laurens	16.25
Fort Mill	16.50
Lancaster	16.50
Abbeville	16.00
Gaffney	16.00
Chesterfield	15.75
Rock Hill	16.00
Easley	16.02

CHESTER MAN'S DOG BITES LANCASTER BOY.

Master James Poag, son of Mr. and Mrs. J. L. Poag, was severely bitten on the calf of his leg late Monday afternoon by a bull dog owned by Mr. J. F. Fischel who is connected with the Lancaster Pharmacy.

It seems from what can be learned by The News, that a small colored boy, "Buster," Crockett, had taken the dog from the rear of the Pharmacy without the knowledge or consent of Mr. Fischel, and was chasing a few colored boys with him. James came along and, as we are advised, "Buster" caught his clothing and said to the boy holding dog, "Don't let that dog bite 'em," which resulted, as above described. James was immediately carried to a physician by his father and his wounds promptly dressed. At 1 o'clock today, Tuesday, he was reported as getting as well as could be expected under the circumstances.

Death of Mr. J. B. Cunningham

Mr. Joseph B. Cunningham died Wednesday afternoon at four o'clock after only a few days illness and was buried yesterday in Evergreen cemetery after funeral services at the home on Dewey street, conducted by Rev. A. D. P. Gilmore.

Mr. Cunningham was a member of the Presbyterian church and had many friends throughout the county who mourn his loss. He was a native of the Liberty Hill section and was fifty-nine years of age.

He is survived by his widow, and four children, Mr. Curry Cunningham, Miss Rebecca and Jennie Cunningham, and Mrs. J. N. Williamson, of Houston, Texas. Also by four brothers, Messrs. W. A. Cunningham, of Liberty Hill; J. G. Cunningham, of Camden; and T. J. and L. L. Cunningham, of Chester; and four sisters, Mrs. W. K. Boggs, of Greenville; Mrs. Mary Cureton and Mrs. A. F. Peay, of Longtown; and Mrs. L. J. Perry, of Lancaster.

CHARGED WITH MURDER.

Joe Tidwell, colored, is in the county jail charged with murdering Panny Barber, near Basomville. From information brought out at the coroner's inquest, it appears that some one struck the woman on the back of the head and afterwards set her clothing on fire, presumably for the purpose of concealing the crime.

The testimony pointed toward Joe Tidwell and the jury, of which Mr. W. R. Hixson was foreman, brought in a verdict to the effect that the woman came to her death from a blow with some heavy instrument at the hands of Joe Tidwell.

Saturday being the Day of Atonement my place of business will be closed until about six o'clock. Saturday evening. Clothes which are not delivered to customers this evening will be sent out tomorrow evening. J. L. Simmons.

MEETING CIVIC ASSOCIATION

Much Good Wholesome Work Planned by Committee of Municipal Inspection of School Children.

The Civic Association held an interesting meeting Monday, Oct. 4th, in the Court House. We were glad to welcome three new members, Mrs. G. G. Anderson, Mrs. Scott Bradley, and Miss Julia Spratt. The treasurer reported two hundred and twenty-five dollars in the treasury. Twenty members dues were received to fifty cents. Mrs. J. J. Stringfellow was elected Secretary.

As a natural outcome of the city being so many times the street paving much interest was shown in an Arbor Day, as Chester must have trees, both for comfort and beauty the plan is to have a general Arbor Day, asking the assistance of the Chamber of Commerce and the whole city to join in making it a success, the first Thursday in November being the day selected.

A communication was received from Judge Starbuck authorizing the Association to improve the lot back of Mr. Simmons' store in any way they thought best, and he would defray expenses.

The committee on Court House grounds, Messrs. S. A. L. depey ground was allowed ten dollars for bulbs and other plants.

The ladies were much disappointed to learn that the Chamber of Commerce, met with them.

Dr. H. E. McConnell, chairman of the Board of Medical Inspection of the city schools, came before the meeting and reported that all the physicians were willing to assist in the inspection free of charge. We doubt if it is generally realized how great an advantage this medical inspection is to our children. We saw a young girl a few days since healthy, round-faced and dimpled, who seemed in the verge of a serious decline last fall before her parents were warned through this examination that she must have outdoor exercise and be well-nourished; and further we knew two boys of most excellent parents, who stood behind from this examination that they were handicapped by tonsillitis and adenoids, which they at once had removed, thus saving their lives. This is only what one person knows about. If we could have the testimony of others our city would see how greatly both children and parents should be helped by the work of the physicians and the Civic Association.

MASS MEETING.

The citizens of Chester county are asked to meet at the county court house in Chester, S. C. Saturday Oct. 28th, at 11 A. M., to discuss with the legislative delegation the advisability of issuing bonds for road improvement. Each township is asked to send ten delegates, including the township road supervisor.

By order of the County Board. DAVID G. ANDERSON, County Supervisor.

Chester, S. C. Oct. 4, 1916. T-t

TO REORGANIZE MILLS

Parker Company Stockholders Meet Next Week.

Greenville, Oct. 4.—The stockholders of the Parker Cotton Mills company will hold a meeting on October 14 in the Chamber of Commerce rooms of Greenville, for the purpose of considering reorganization plans, as prepared by a special committee of six stockholders. A financial statement of the mills, accompanied by an explanatory letter and a call for the meeting, is being sent out to all the stockholders. The financial statement shows that the Victor-Monaghan mills are now in first class condition, their debt being very small, and the quick success of the company. An official of the company, in speaking of the present status of the Victor-Monaghan mills, said yesterday that the company's paper is now being sought by the banks, whereas prior to the sale of the Hampton group of mills, and before any of the plans of reorganization were known, the company found itself in a distressing condition.

The financial statement of the Victor-Monaghan mills, eight plants containing 239,936 spindles and 6,289 looms, prepared as of August 31, 1916, shows that these mills owe $77,200.58, and have quick assets amounting to $1,345,041.25. The financial condition of the company is at this time very strong and prospects are for continued success.

CHESTER SUNDAY SCHOOL CONVENTION HOLDS SESSION

(Written For The News.)

The Chester county Sunday school convention held its session Tuesday in the American Reformed Presbyterian church of Chester, closing at night with the address of Dr. A. D. P. Gilmore, pastor of the Chester Presbyterian church, on "The Attitude of Jesus Christ Toward the Sunday School."

This convention is regarded as one of the best ever held in the county. It was an extraordinary meeting in which representatives from all denominations in the county took part. Those taking part in the program were: L. V. Brown, county president; S. E. Wiley, county secretary; treasurer: Dr. D. G. Phillips, pastor of the Associate Reformed Presbyterian church; the Rev. H. E. Turnipseed, pastor of the Methodist church; Dr. H. A. Bagley, pastor of the Baptist church; Dr. A. D. P. Gilmore, pastor of the Presbyterian church; the Rev. R. A. Lammus, Edgemore; Miss Agnes Ravenel and R. D. Webb of Spartanburg.

Eighteen Sunday schools of the county were represented. There was a good attendance from the local schools. The following officers were chosen for the next year: President, J. H. Glenn, Chester; secretary, Miss Bertha Stahs, Chester; division superintendents: Elementary: Miss M. C. Caldwell, Chester; secondary, T. H. White, Chester; adult, J. R. Dye, Chester. District presidents: No. 1, W. E. Goings, Chester; No. 2, J. S. McGowan, Cornwell; No. 4, H. K. McGarity, Blackstock; No. 5, A. Gibson, Blackstock; No. 6, S. A. McWaters, Fort Lawton; No. 7, J. J. R. Rold, Richburg; No. 8, J. H. Glenn, Chester.

MASS MEETING.

The citizens of Chester county are asked to meet at the county court house in Chester, S. C. Saturday Oct. 28th, at 11 A. M., to discuss with the legislative delegation the advisability of issuing bonds for road improvement. Each township is asked to send ten delegates, including the township road supervisor.

By order of the County Board. DAVID G. ANDERSON, County Supervisor.

TO REORGANIZE MILLS

Parker Company Stockholders Meet Next Week.

Greenville, Oct. 4.—The stockholders of the Parker Cotton Mills company will hold a meeting on October 14 in the Chamber of Commerce rooms of Greenville, for the purpose of considering reorganization plans, as prepared by a special committee of six stockholders. A financial statement of the mills, accompanied by an explanatory letter and a call for the meeting, is being sent out to all the stockholders. The financial statement shows that the Victor-Monaghan mills are now in first class condition, their debt being very small, and the quick success of the company. An official of the company, in speaking of the present status of the Victor-Monaghan mills, said yesterday that the company's paper is now being sought by the banks, whereas prior to the sale of the Hampton group of mills, and before any of the plans of reorganization were known, the company found itself in a distressing condition.

New York, Oct. 4.—With the fallure today of Mayor Mitchell to adjust the differences between producers and distributors of milk and the decision of Attorney General Woodbury to begin Statewide inquiry into the causes leading to the rupture of the situation, so far as the general public is concerned, was said tonight to be growing acute.

A shortage of more than 50 per cent in the milk supply which already has resulted from the control very is causing much suffering, according to the authorities. The supply is expected to diminish rather than increase until a settlement is reached.

The Attorney General issued a statement late today in which he said that this investigation to begin Friday, will "determine fairly and impartially how far there may have been unlawful combinations in restraint of trade for controlling the price of this important necessity of life."

Lesson II—Fourth Quarter, For Oct. 8, 1916.

THE INTERNATIONAL SERIES.

Text of the Lesson, Acts xviii, 10-21. Commentary by Rev. D. M. Stearns.

This chapter gives us Paul's testimony before the high priest and the elders from Jerusalem, Gamaliel, the presence of the governor, Felix, and also some account of one of Paul's trials with Felix and his wife Drusilla. The persecutors from Jerusalem brought with them an orator, who, with Balaam, for Felix, did a large amount of lying against Paul, which the Jews believed, saying that these men were slaves of the emperor, Paul denied their accusations and defied them to prove what they said and then stated the case truthfully (verses 10-18). It is a thing which has been said in the Bible which are written in the law and in the prophets (verse 14) reminds us that our Lord said that the Jews were foolish in not doing so, and also that the expounded from Moses and the prophets and the psalms the things concerning Himself, saying that all that he fulfilled (Acts xviii, 25-27). It is counted hereby even now by many supposedly orthodox preachers to be a liberal Israel to occupy the land given to Abraham, Isaac and Jacob, and a liberal kingdom of God on earth, which is a center, who shall, as a nation made righteous by receiving Jesus Christ, as their Messiah, when He shall come in His glory, then bring blessing to all nations. I have been told to my face by a teacher of large Bible classes that the Jews were more to God than the Indians of our country, but I am still believing God and standing with our Lord and with Paul and expect so to continue in His grace. As to the resurrection of the dead, both of the just and unjust, when understood in the light of all Scripture, that also is most simple and helpful.

All the dead shall rise, that is, close not only from lesson verse 15, but also from our Lord's own words in John 7, 28, and then, in 11, 2, "I am the hour of John 7, 28, may, will, and will, carry a thousand years is easy from the fact that the hour of John 7, 28, has already covered nearly 1,000 years in Luke xiv, 14, the resurrection of the just and spoken of as a time of reward for the righteous and 1 Cor. xv, 23, says "They that are Christ at His coming." In Rev. xx, 6, it is written that those who do not take part in the first resurrection will not rise till the end of the thousand years. There is no foundation in Scripture for the thought that our resurrection takes place when we die or for the use of the fact that a funeral "he is not here, he is risen" for those words were used of the literal resurrection body that Paul and expect so to continue in His grace. As to the resurrection of the dead, both of the just and unjust, when understood in the light of all Scripture, that also is most simple and helpful.

If this sounds strange to any who read, please do not turn away from it. I once did, but took time in humility and prayerfully, with a real desire to know the mind of the Lord, and He will surely testify you. Let us call to our remembrance word of comfort to ward God and then toward men (verse 16). Felix, having heard both sides and seeing through some things, decided that the matter be deferred until Lystra, the chief captain, could come and advise him more fully. Meantime he treated Paul well as a prisoner, giving him liberty and allowing his acquaintances to see him and minister to him (verses 22, 23). As we think of Philip and his household and all who heard the word of the house of Cornelius, it is possible that Paul was made as comfortable as a prisoner could be and, no doubt, he used every opportunity to preach Christ-entrusted, risen and returning to set up His kingdom.

We may infer from verse 27 that the case was deferred for at least two years, that Paul must have had much rest and many opportunities. We cannot think as well of Felix as we would think for he was evidently an up to date grater and a man, possibly, often sending for Paul to hear him talk, trembling a little sometimes under his searching words, but always hoping that Paul would offer him money to set him free, and keeping Paul prisoner to please the Jews (verses 24-27). What we call graft, or, as in the Bible, taking bribes, is a very old story, and was forbidden by the law of Moses. Samuel was free from it, but not so his sons (Deut. xxi, 19; 1 Sam. viii, 3-5, 20).

We must not confuse this with the saying of our Lord, as some do, that the Spirit will convict the world of sin, and of righteousness, and of judgment (John xvi, 7, 8). Our first need as sinners is a righteousness which will enable us to appear unashamed before God, and this we cannot obtain until we are clothed with the righteousness of God, and in due order come to judge most either for sins or service.

CHAMBER OF COMMERCE CORRECTS PREMIUM LIST.

Through an error in making up the premium list for this year's fair, Gurnsey Cattle (registered) was omitted from the list of cattle in Department "B." Since this omission has been called to the attention of the fair management it has been corrected in the booklet containing the premium list. It is not correct in the Chester Fair Book as thousands of them had been mailed before the oversight had been discovered.

In the official books of the Fair, Gurnsey Cattle will appear as follows:

Best Calf, either sex under 1 year entry $50; 1st prize $20, 2nd $10.
Best Bull 1 to 3 years, entry $100 1st prize $50, 2nd $25.
Best Cow one to two years, entry $100 1st prize $50, 2nd $25.
Best Cow two years and over entry $100 1st prize $50, 2nd $25.
Best Heifer, over 1 year and under 2 entry $100 1st prize $50, 2nd $25.
Best herd, bull and four or more females, entry for herd $200, prize $100.

Another error that crept into the making up of the premium list was the omission of grade beef cattle. In the official books they will appear as follows:

Best Calf, either sex, 1 year, entry $50; 1st prize $15, 2nd $10.
Best Cow 3 years and over, entry $50 1st prize $25, 2nd $10.
Best Cow, 1 to 3 years, entry $50 1st prize $25, 2nd $10.
Best herd, bull and four or more females, entry herd $100, prize $50.

Grade Bulls have been abolished in the corrections of the cattle department to be found on page 61 of the Premium List, the following not being appended thereto:

NOTE—Premiums No. 130 and 131, in Department B, are hereby abolished. Premium No. 132, 133 134 and 135 are open only to Dairy types.

NOTICE TEACHERS EXAMINATION.

The next regular examination for teachers' graded certificates will be held at the Court House Friday, October 6, 1916, at 9 A. M. No teacher can be legally employed to teach in the public schools of the county (or State) who has not a valid certificate registered in the office of Superintendent of Education. Valid certificates from other counties of South Carolina must be registered in the Superintendent's office before the holder enters upon the duties of teacher. Teachers' teachers should not overlook this requirement of the State law.
